Read & Summarize

Instructions: Read the passage below. Then determine what happened first in the reading, what happened next, and what happened at the end of the passage. Use complete sentences when completing the boxes.

Anne Frank was a young girl who lived during World War II. She wrote a diary about her life while she was hiding from the Nazis. Anne and her family had to hide because they were Jewish and it was dangerous for them. They lived in a secret place called the Secret Annex in Amsterdam. Anne's diary was a special gift she got for her thirteenth birthday. She started writing in it two days after her birthday. Anne wrote in Dutch, but sometimes she used German or English words.

Anne's diary became very famous and has been translated into more than 70 languages. After the war, Anne's father published her diary so that people could learn about her story. Many people have read her diary and it has inspired books, plays, and movies. The Diary of Anne Frank is considered one of the top books of the 20th century. It is an important story that teaches us about the Holocaust and the bravery of Anne and her family.

Anne Frank's diary is a powerful and inspiring book. It tells the story of a young girl who faced difficult times with honesty and determination. Anne wanted to bring enjoyment to people through her writing, even after she died. Her diary shows us the importance of hope and resilience, even in the darkest of times. We can learn a lot from Anne's story and remember her as a brave and talented girl who made a difference with her words.
